TEACH RADICAL SERIES: ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION IN PRACTICE

Part 3: Building Movements through Alternative Education Centers

Tuesday, June 25 | 6 - 8pm | Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung—NYC
275 Madison Ave., Suite 2114, NYC 10016

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Activist groups and community organizations account for a great deal of the energy that drives the U.S. Left, but can the sum of their parts add up to a movement capable of bringing about fundamental social change? Alternative educational centers provide spaces in which groups can come together to envision a different kind of society. These centers can draw in and strengthen the many smaller progressive projects taking place around us. Join us for a discussion with the Brecht Forum and the Maysles Documentary Center to find out how they are working for social change through education.

The Brecht Forum is a cultural and educational center for people working for social justice, equality, and a new culture that puts human needs first. The Maysles Documentary Center is a non-profit dedicated to the exhibition and production of documentary films that inspire dialogue and action.

Check out the video of Teach Radical Part 1: Educating for Community Power with Steve Williams and Omar Freilla as well as pictures from Part 1 and Part 2 on our Flickr page.
