UPCOMING EVENTS

INDIGENOUS WOMEN ENGAGING THE UN

UN Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues 2015

From April 19-24, 2015, RLS–NYC and MADRE will host a delegation of twelve Indigenous women leaders from Africa, Asia, and the Americas during the UN Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues (UNPFII). The goal is to support Indigenous women in their advocacy work at the United Nations, in particular regarding their efforts to shape discussions on climate change from a gender perspective. We will organize a number of events for the delegation and an official side event of the UNPFII.

Public Side Event

Confronting Climate Change: Indigenous Women and Sustainable Development

Wednesday, April 22, 2015, 1:15 – 2:30pm

With simultaneous interpretation into Spanish

Please note that a UN pass is required to enter the building

PEACE & PLANET

RLS–NYC Supports International Gathering at the NPT Conference

Every five years, the United Nations convenes a meeting to review the 1970 Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT). RLS–NYC is hosting several speakers at the Peace and Planet conference, taking place alongside the official meeting. Organized by peace organizations from around the world, the conference will highlight how issues such as war, nuclear weapons, and military spending are connected to inequality and environmental destruction.
