

UPCOMING EVENTS

EUROPE ON THE EDGE

An Evening with Gregor Gysi and Leo Panitch – Thursday, October 29, New York

Join us on October 29 for an evening with Gregor Gysi, a longtime leader of Germany's Left Party, and Leo Panitch, a leading intellectual of the North American Left. They will discuss what the Left can do about the crises in the European Union, including Greece's unbearable debt, the deepening refugee crisis, and never-ending austerity's immiseration of the European working class.

Thursday, October 29, 6pm-8pm

NYU Journalism Institute

20 Cooper Square, Seventh Floor

RELEASE EVENT: RED ROSA

A Graphic Biography of Rosa Luxemburg - Thursday, November 5, Brooklyn, NY

Join us on Thursday, November 5 to celebrate the release of Red Rosa, a new graphic novel by Kate Evans, published by Verso Books in collaboration with RLS–NYC. We will celebrate the release with a special event featuring author Kate Evans and New York-based artist and writer Molly Crabapple. Evans will open the event with a presentation about the process of creating this graphic novel. She will then be joined by Crabapple for a dialogue about what it means to be a political feminist graphic artist today.

Thursday, November 5, 7-9pm

Verso Books, 20 Jay Street, Suite 1010, Brooklyn, NY

ALTERNATIVE HOUSING – ALTERNATIVE FUTURE

A Transatlantic Roundtable, October 8-10, Berlin

RLS–NYC and the Right to the City Alliance are hosting a transatlantic roundtable focusing on alternative housing, from community land trusts to housing cooperatives. Coming off the successes of our recent Right to the City roundtables that focused on displacement, this year's workshop will bring together housing activists and scholars to debate and envision strategies of alternative housing and building the commons. This year's workshop participants come from Detroit, New York City, Jackson, Montreal, Toronto, Athens, Valencia, Hamburg, Berlin, Porto, Leeds, and London.
