TEACH RADICAL SERIES:
ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION IN PRACTICE

Part 2: Agitating for Better Public Schools

Tuesday, May 28 | 6 - 8pm | Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung-NYC
275 Madison Ave., Suite 2114, NYC 10016

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Under Bloomberg’s mayoral control, New York City’s public school system has veered toward privatization and exclusion, and the city’s youth—particularly those who are poor, black, and brown—are paying the costs. How are teachers, parents, and students resisting, and what can the rest of us do to support them? Join us for a discussion and find out what the New York Collective of Radical Educators (NYCoRE) and the Coalition for Public Education are doing to ensure that our schools remain sources of democracy and progress, not factories reproducing inequity and injustice.

RLS-NYC SUPPORTS WOMEN LEADERS AT THE UN PERMANENT FORUM ON INDIGENOUS ISSUES (UNPFII)

The Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung—New York Office is proud to present a collaboration with MADRE, an NGO focusing on women’s issues, inviting a group of indigenous women leaders to participate in co-organized events surrounding the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues (UNPFII) taking place in New York City from May 20-31, 2013.

Two public events, on Monday May 21 at the United Nations and on Thursday May 23 at UNICEF, will allow for indigenous women to speak about gender-based violence in their communities, and also to develop capacity and leadership training to work on such pressing issues. For more information, please visit our webpage, and also the UNPFII.
VIDEO: RISING INEQUALITY IN CANADA: CAUSES AND CONSEQUENCES

In April, the RLS–NYC held a conference on Capitalism, Inequality, and Democracy in cooperation with the University of British Columbia in Vancouver.

In this YouTube video Trish Hennessy, the Director of the Canadian Center for Policy Alternatives in Toronto, provides a critical assessment of the causes and consequences of rising inequality in Canada.
