

UPCOMING EVENTS

January 30-31 - NYC

PLANET OF THE OCEANS

Environment and Society on the Rest of the Planet

The ocean, our world's ultimate commons, is threatened by abuse, enclosure, and commercialization. Powerful corporate interests seek to privatize the seas and continue to ignore the predictably devastating ecological and social consequences. “Planet of the Ocean” brings together international researchers, journalists, and activists to consider how human society impacts the ocean, how it impacts us, and how we can work together to restore and protect our last great commons.

February 14, 12-4pm - Shabazz Center, NYC

Confronted with today’s mass incarceration, persistent police brutality, and rising economic inequality, Malcolm X’s legacy of love and liberation speaks directly to us. On the occasion of the upcoming 50th anniversary of his murder, we will lean into Malcolm’s legacy of radical activism and look at the complex layers of a man whose passion continues to ignite and inspire our struggle for a just world in the 21st century.

Speakers include Sonia Sanchez, Tariq Ali, Alicia Garza, and Kali Akuno. More information and RSVP here.
