Fifty years after the historic 1963 March on Washington, movement veterans and the new generation of activists and artists meet for an inspired evening of conversations.

Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture
515 Malcolm X Boulevard (at 135th St)
Harlem, NY 10039

Sponsored by:

The Rosa Luxemburg Foundation is an internationally operating, progressive non-profit institution for civic education. In cooperation with many organizations around the globe, it works on democratic and social participation, empowerment of disadvantaged groups, alternatives for economic and social development, and peaceful conflict resolution.

The New York Office serves two major tasks: to work around issues concerning the United Nations and to engage in dialogue with North American progressives in universities, unions, social movements, and politics.
