APRIL 21-28: INDIGENOUS WOMEN LEADERS AT THE UN

RLS–NYC and MADRE have invited Indigenous women leaders from across the world to participate in the United Nations Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues in New York. This year, we will focus on understanding the scope and potential of international rights instruments to design effective strategies to respond to the threats that prevent the realization of collective and individual rights.

We will host public events on movement building and how to confront and lobby policy-makers. For details and to RSVP, please visit our website.

APRIL 25: FILM SCREENING: "CHRONICLE OF A RETURN"

The Wasserman Jewish Studies Center, the Leo Baeck Institute, and RLS–NYC invite you to a screening of and discussion about the documentary film "Chronicle of a Return: Life Paths of Jews in the GDR" (USA/Germany/Czech Republic, 1989/93).

The film documents a decisive moment for Germany and Europe, when German Jews who had left Germany during the Nazi regime returned to what would later become the German Democratic Republic. For details, please visit our website.
