

Your Block, Our World: Building a Global Platform for the Right to the City

A conversation with representatives from the Global Platform for the Right to the City, Picture The Homeless, Huairou Commission, and Right to the City Alliance

What exactly is the Right to the City? How does it relate to both global networks and community-based organizations?

Join housing and human rights organizations from across New York and the world to learn about the Global Platform for the Right to the City and discuss how we can strengthen our collective work.

Friday, July 14
5:00 – 7:00pm

The New School
University Center
Starr Foundation Hall
