

INDIGENOUS WOMEN TRANSFORMING POWER

MADRE • 35 YEARS OF FIGHTING FOR FEMINIST FUTURES

Indigenous women are transforming communities and structures of power across the world. They organize to boost rural women's capacity to vote, run for and win public office, and mobilize to demand their voices be heard in policymaking. Hear firsthand from Indigenous women leaders about their path to empowerment.

Co-sponsored by Rosa Luxemburg
Stiftung - NYC

Speakers:

- Rose Cunningham, Wangki Tangni - Nicaragua
- Lucy Mulenkei, Indigenous Information Network - Kenya
- Yasso Bhattachan, National Indigenous Women's Forum - Nepal
- Aminatou Samira, Indigenous youth activist - Cameroon

Moderator: Yifat Susskind, MADRE
Executive Director

DETAILS

- Monday, March 12
- 10:30am-12:00pm
- 4 W 43rd Street, Aqua Room
- RSVP at madre@madre.org

ROSA
LUXEMBURG
STIFTUNG
NEW YORK OFFICE

MADRE

