PROGRAM

RETHINKING INTERNATIONAL SOLIDARITY IN AN AGE OF NATIONALISM

5:00-5:15 pm
Welcome and coffee

5:15-7:00 pm | Panel
How can we practice international political solidarity to counter the rise of right-wing nationalists intent on undermining democracy? How can we link this defensive struggle to a transformative vision for socialism in the 21st century?

Presentations by:
- Medea Benjamin, Code Pink
- Bill Fletcher, Institute for Policy Studies
- Heather Milton Lightening, Indigenous Environmental Network
- Kali Akuno, Cooperation Jackson
- Kari Thompson, United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America
- Sean Sweeney, CUNY School for Labor and Urban Studies
- Oliver Schmidtke, University of Victoria
- John Nichols, The Nation Magazine
- Dawn Phillips, Right to the City Alliance
- Steve Williams, LeftRoots
- Bhaskar Sunkara, Jacobin Magazine
- Maria Svart, Democratic Socialists of America

Moderated by:
- Albert Scharenberg, Outgoing Co-Director RLS–NYC

7:00-7:15 pm
Coffee break

7:15-8:00 pm | Panel
What is the role of the Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung in the international political arena, and what can it do to support and strengthen collaborations on the pluralist left?

Presentations by:
- Boris Kanzleiter, Director Centre for International Dialogue and Cooperation
- Stefanie Ehmsen, Outgoing Co-Director RLS–NYC
- Andreas Günther, Incoming Director RLS–NYC

Closing remarks by:
- Dagmar Enkelmann, President Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung

8:00-10:00 pm
Reception